New and Improved Contract for Kytril

Recently Roche enhanced their already potent product agreement to Oncology

Associates. Effective March 1, 2002, OA members are benefiting from more simplified pricing tiers that have resulted in better pricing for 90% of all members.

Dino DeRoia, National Account Manager with Roche, stated "These contract modifications are in response to the customer's needs. We have put together a contract that will benefit a greater number of customers, especially the committed smaller accounts."

OA members can review the Roche contract summary online at RCMED.com. Click on the "Password Login" button and enter the confidential codes provided in your recent membership mailer.

Dennis Wollschleger R. Ph., OA's Sr. VP of Business Development, commented "It is important for our members to understand the impact of these additional features to the original contract. We are pleased with this product agreement and willing to discuss this contract in detail with those members who may have questions."
