

The ASCO Foundation

by Dr. Joe DiBenedetto, Jr., M.D.
Medical Director, Oncology Associates

The ASCO Foundation is a charitable organization dedicated to supporting ASCO's education and research mission worldwide. The Foundation supports educational programs of the highest quality, both in cancer care and prevention. It also facilitates the dissemination of information about cancer and cancer treatments to patients and their families. Through its grant program, The Foundation supports, encourages and recognizes excellence in clinical research in the field of oncology.

Among the largest of any medical professional societies in the United States, The ASCO Foundation provides funding to clinical researchers whose clinical research has a direct patient-oriented focus. The Foundation sponsors the work of beginning oncologists through the Young Investigator Award (YIA) and of junior faculty with the Clinical Research Career Development Award (CDA).

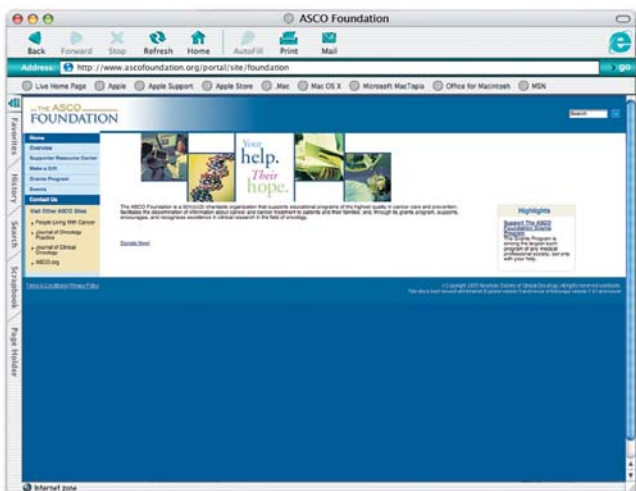

The ASCO Foundation funds oncologists worldwide, both in the United States and those in developing countries. The Foundation receives its support both from industry and the private sector to carry out its mission of prevention, diagnosis and treatment of cancer. It also believes that patients everywhere should have access to high-quality cancer care. Oncology Associates urges its members to support the ASCO Foundation as it continues its worthwhile mission. OA
